First Parochial School in St. Louis

This building was erected in the year 1845 (approximately). The parish school of St. Vincent De Paul was opened by Mother Fontbonne of the Order of the Sisters of St. Joseph.

This building was rented as an addition to the original school.

This is a one story frame building.

Information received from Parish House of St. Vincent De Paul Church.

The property is now owned by S.T. Fullerton.
